DISCIPLINARY REGULATIONS

In this hostel Training is given for EDUCARE, i.e. to bring out human qualities such as selfless love, sacrifice, forbearance, compassion etc., in each student. Hence every student is expected to behave with a high sense of discipline and follow sincerely, the important guidelines given below, so that, he may gain the real benefit of his stay here in this hallowed Institution, for a happy and successful life in future.

1. Behaviour: As Humility is the firm foundation for a noble character, each student is expected to practice sincerely, obedience and reverence to teachers and elders, mutual courtesy and love towards fellow students. Every student should participate in all spiritual practices with true spirit of participation.
2. Attitude: Silence is the key to self-knowledge. Hence, every student should voluntarily maintain silence during mass gatherings in places, such as the Dining hall, the Classroom, the Mandir premises etc., Students should talk softly and sweetly, avoiding loud and unnecessary talk.
3. Dress code: All students should wear simple and decent dress and always maintain a short and well groomed hairstyle. The students shall not sport moustache, beard or long side burns.
4. Going outside the hostel premises for any reason, other than attending School and Ashram will not be entertained. Overnight stay outside the hostel is not allowed.
5. GOING HOME: Students are permitted to go home only during the winter and summer holidays. In the event of compelling situations such as medical treatment, marriage (own sister/brother), the Warden may permit a student to go home on receiving a requisition letter from the parent.
6. Parents Meet: Students are allowed to meet the parents or guardians only on Sunday between 10.30 a.m. and 1.00p.m. and NOT on any other holiday or working day. The local guardians and parents at Puttaparthi are especially requested to extend their co-operation in this regard. The 'parents meet' will be cancelled a week or two before the commencement of examinations, to enable the students to utilise fully, all the time, available for his studies without any distraction.
7. Telephone facility: Every week, the students are permitted to use telephone for conversation with their parents on specified days and timings only. Parents are requested to restrict their telephonic conversation with the ward to a maximum of ten minutes in view of many other students anxiously waiting for their incoming calls from their parents.
8. The Parents are requested, not to hold on, their ward and entertain him with any eatables when he is returning from Mandir to the Hostel. Any breach of this regulation, breeds indiscipline in the students and as well cause problems to the hostel authorities.

9. Students are permitted to read only such magazines like Competition Success Review, Science Reporter etc., which are informative but not pollute or disturb young minds. Students should seek the permission of the wing teacher for reading any non-academic book or magazine.
10. ELECTRONIC GADGETS: The students are not allowed to possess cell-phone, Video games, I-pad, laptop, pen-drive, mp3, mp4 players etc., In-case of any school project or programme, the students should take prior permission from the Hostel teachers in-charge for using any of these items and keep it in the custody of the teacher In-charge, immediately after use.
11. "CLEANLINESS IS next to GODLINESS". All students should maintain high standard of personal cleanliness and the cleanliness of their room and the surroundings, with a spirit of co-operation and understanding.
12. Whenever students receive money from parents they have to deposit the amount into their stores account as soon as possible for safe custody. Students are not expected to keep any currency more than one hundred rupees with them any time. When required, they can withdraw the necessary amount from their stores account after getting due permission from their wing teacher.
13. Every student should always bear in mind the following guidelines of Bhagawan for his happy life.

"Don't waste Time, Time waste is, Life waste

Don't waste Food, Food is God

Don't waste Money, misuse of Money is, Evil".

14. The students should take proper care to maintain the furniture, cupboard and fixtures of the Hostel in good condition. In case of breakage or damage caused to any of the Hostel property, the cost of repair chargers along with the fine will be collected from the student/ students, responsible for the same. The students are strictly prohibited from writing or sticking, anything on the walls and the cupboards.
15. The student's life in the Hostel is a busy life. Hence, all the students should make sincere effort to get up from the bed, at 5.00 a.m. everyday, follow all the routine with in the time and retire to bed about 10 p.m. after the night prayers.
16. Any breach of, the Hostel rules and regulations by the student, will be seriously dealt with.
If, a student's behavior, as observed by the Hostel Committee, continues to remain unsatisfactory, he will be expelled from, both the Hostel and the School, any time.

Above all, every student should cherish the thought that,

"The Hostel is a Home where each lives for the other and All live for God"
